THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Cheryl Hubenak

Accepting Jesus Christ at the age of 10 was the way I acknowledged that I knew the difference between right and wrong. I attended Sunday School, Training Union and GA's (all dated terms). I felt that I was no different than anyone else who attended our small church in the town of 1,400 people. As teenager, and later as an adult, I became aware that accepting Jesus did not mean I would have a perfect life. A normal life, yes, but far from perfect.

Marriage, rearing children, a full-time job competed for my attention and though I attended church and rejoiced when my children became Christians, got married and had their own families, I felt something was missing in my life. It was at that time I began to read the Bible. I had memorized verses of scripture, read daily devotionals, and listened to many sermons, but I wanted more. My faith was weak, and I needed to be reassured. Truthfully, I had been drawn away by worldly cares. It was then that I began to read and study the Bible.

I found myself drawn to John 5:24. We know Jesus is giving us assurance of our salvation in this verse when he affirms Truth, Faith in God, Freedom from condemnation (Forgiveness), and Life in Him, all in this short verse. The more we seek Him, the more real he becomes to us. The more we ask for understanding, the more He gives it to us from His word.

Sometimes we need specifics and as I read the 8th chapter of Romans, I found even more assurance of my salvation in verses 38 and 39 where we read that NOTHING exists which can separate us (Christians) from the love of God in Jesus Christ. These verses are my testimony. I believe, I have confessed, I have been forgiven, and I AM a thankful, rejoicing child of The King.
