THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

“But Noah found favor with the Lord.”
Genesis 6:8

Looking back through the rearview mirror from the age of 56, I seem to remember the day as if it were yesterday. It was February 9, 1993. Toni had just given birth to our son, Austin. He would be the firstborn in our family. I remember the nurse wrapping him up and handing him to me. The only thought going through my mind as I held him was, “What do I do now?” I was neither prepared or equipped for the journey ahead... at least, that was how I remember feeling in the moment.

Back then, I couldn’t talk to my phone and say, “Hey Siri...Help! I’m a new father. What do I do?” or “Bixby...Find me instructions on how to be a good dad.” There was no Youtube to surf to find a two minute how-to video.

So, I did what I believe many new parents do...I called my parents. Then, I called my mother-in-law. I quickly realized the vast amount of knowledge they had concerning parenting...who knew (apparently not me)?

I was fortunate, I had parents that were followers of Jesus and a church family, Northside, that had been pouring Scripture into me since I was a child. I never took the time to realize that all along they had been preparing me for the journey ahead and life in general.

You and I have the opportunity to learn from those that have followed God before us....both those among us and those from ancient days past. Today, as we take time to celebrate our dads, we are going to look at the attributes of Noah, who was more than just a boat builder. Let’s see how he found favor with God. It is one of the smartest things we can do to help our children on the journey of becoming all that God intends them to be.

It’s a privilege to serve as your Discipleship Pastor,
