THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good morning Northside Family! First off, thank you for praying for us this week as we traveled to and from Glorieta, NM for camp. We had an awesome week, and God showed himself as I knew he would. I love Glorieta... every time I have gone there, God reminds me how much more He loves me and shows me something new. It is a wonderful place. This year the weather was awesome. Low 60's for most of the week, and almost two full days of steady light rain. I am not trying to rub that in, but it was amazing.

“Hesed is not merely an emotion or feeling but involves action on behalf of someone who is in need.”

There were lots of things that happened that reminded me how God is in control, but something strange came up. Students, junior high to young adults, are hurting. The depression rate and anxiety I saw this week was alarming. I cannot tell you why or how this has happened over the past few years but it has. I have been praying for our students for months and hope you will join with me as we work together to help our kiddos learn about God's hesed. That is a Hebrew word that is 250 times in the Old Testament and expresses an essential part of God's character. Hesed is not merely an emotion or feeling but involves action on behalf of someone who is in need. Hesed describes a sense of love and loyalty that inspires merciful and compassionate behavior toward another person. I want our students and people to know that God loves them and desires to be in a real authentic relationship with him.

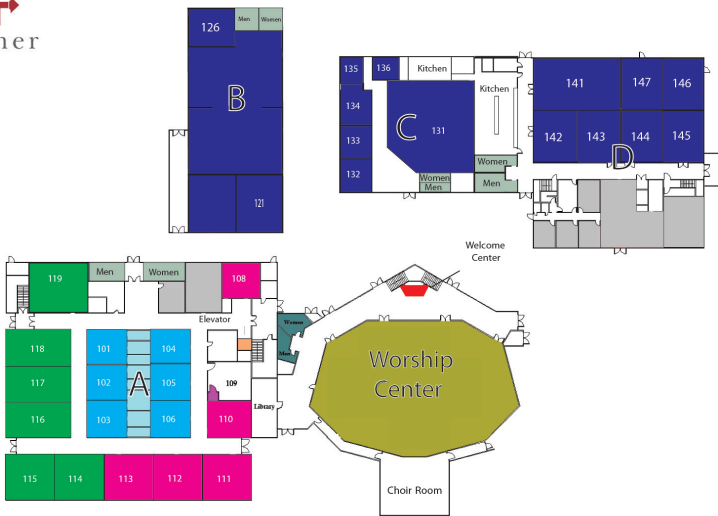

Today's message came from a Wednesday night sermon from Jason Cook, our camp pastor for the week. Before he took the stage, he meets with all the youth pastors and shares his heart and where he is going for the night. When I heard the title and listened I was challenged to look at my life and how I am living to show who God is. This morning I hope and pray that you will have an open heart as we dive into the word. I pray that you would be willing to look at yourself and examine your life and heart. God is awesome, and he is doing a great work in our lives.

Two major questions: what do you want me to do? What is my purpose?
