THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

One of the things I wrestle with most deeply in my walk with Christ is remembering what He has done for me. It is not just the “remembering,” that bothers me, it is that I want to feel the full weight of what He has sacrificed on my behalf. It seems if we could “Then, in the greatest exchange ever, we have become the righteousness of God. This truth should shock and humble us.”

embrace the sacrifice, process the pain He endured, and recognize what was going on at a spiritual level – we would not have a problem living all out for Jesus Christ.

Today, we will examine, in part, what was taking place as the whole crucifixion event began to unfold. We will see the false accusations. We will watch the unjust treatment. And we will see the merciless mocking and torture that took place. All of this was based on false accusations and misunderstood priorities. However, none of it was by accident, rather it was according to the perfect plan of our God.

Scripture tells us that, “For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God” (2 Cor. 5:21). Think about that for a second. Jesus Christ, who knew no sin, became sin. That is, Jesus Christ took on the full weight of our guilt so that we might be released from that guilt. Then, in the greatest exchange ever, we have become the righteousness of God. This truth should shock and humble us.

My prayer for us today is that we will begin to lay hold of the weight as to what took place as Christ made His way to the cross. I pray that we will be humbled. I pray that we will be broken. And I pray that we will be brought to the place of total surrender. What Christ has done on our behalf is unparalleled in all of history.

Honored to be your pastor,
