THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

One of the great joys and privileges of my life is to say that I am the pastor of Northside Baptist Church. Yes, pastoring is hard work. Yes, there are challenges that we face. And yes, there are times where it is hard to see the way forward. However, the sense of gratitude and honor far outweigh it all. I want to be clear; it is you, the people of Northside, that make it such a blessing.

At the risk of sounding as if I am bragging, I wanted to share several things I am involved with. The reason that I want to share these things is that it is because of you that I have been given these opportunities. This past week I traveled to Dallas where I have the privilege of serving on the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. As part of that role, I also serve as the chair of the Center for Collegiate Ministries Committee. By virtue of the fact that I serve as chair of that committee, I also serve on the Executive Committee of the State Convention. Again, all of these opportunities have been afforded me because of you.

Besides my involvement with the state convention, I also serve on the board of San Marcos Academy. You may not know it, but Northside has some pretty close ties to this school in spite of the fact it is in San Marcos. The academy has a long history and is distinctively Baptist in its approach. SMA has over 300 students that not only receive an academic education, but are also given a biblical foundation and are prepared to lead in the world we live in.

As many of you know, I also have the opportunity to teach a college class for Stark College and Seminary. This has been both a challenge and a blessing. But, once again, it is an extension of the ministry of Northside.

I share all of this to say thank you. Thank you for being the church you are and thank you for giving me these opportunities. One of the things that really drew me to Northside over six years ago was that I already knew her reach was far beyond a building sitting at 4100 N. Laurent. Keep praying. Keep serving.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL
