THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

One does not have to be a minister, counselor, or judge to recognize that marriage has fallen on hard times in our culture. It seems the root of this problem lies in the fact that we feel that we have a greater understanding of how to do marriage than God did when He gave us instruction. It is as if we think culture has progressed past the sort of marriage that is outlined for us in scripture.

“It seems the root of this problem lies in the fact that we feel that we have a greater understanding of how to do marriage than God did when He gave us instruction.” I am aware that I will probably upset some people with today’s message. After preaching messages like this, I often receive emails alerting me to the feeling I hurt or why I am off base. The truth is, I do not have an option as to whether or not to preach the Word of God. As Paul said, “I am compelled” (1 Cor 9:16). So, my hope for you today is that you will listen with an open heart and an open mind and consider the possibility that the Bible may have something to say to us about marriage.

What we will see today is Peter admonish us to fill our God given roles. Yes, that means for men to lead and women to submit. However, do not have a knee jerk reaction to these terms. Let’s take a deep look at these things this morning and see, as we look from God’s perspective, whether or not there may be something here.

I would love to see all of our families and marriages flourish. However, I only believe that is possible if we learn to do marriage and family as God has prescribed.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL

SERMON NOTES

Simon Says Making Marriage Work 1 Peter 3:1-7

THE BIG IDEA: Our marriages must be built on a biblical foundation in order to endure the pressures of this world.

1. Wives be _____ to your own husbands (vs. 1-6).

2. Husbands, _____ with your wives (v. 7).
