THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

When things do not go the way that we would like, we can often find ourselves frustrated. Rarely do we stop to realize that God might be up to something in our lives. Instead, we grow weary, tired, and agitated. “Why can’t things go right just one time?”

As we will see in today’s text, many times something much larger than what we can see in the immediate is at work. It is too easy for us to focus on the current frustration or pain.

When we focus this way, we are unable to detach from our situation and see that maybe God is up to something bigger.

There are certain things that we believe as followers of Christ. We believe that God is sovereign, governing the affairs of humanity. We believe that God will meet all of our needs. We believe that God is good and benevolent, working all things to our good. However, when pressure is applied, we too often fail to allow what we know in our head to bring peace to our heart.

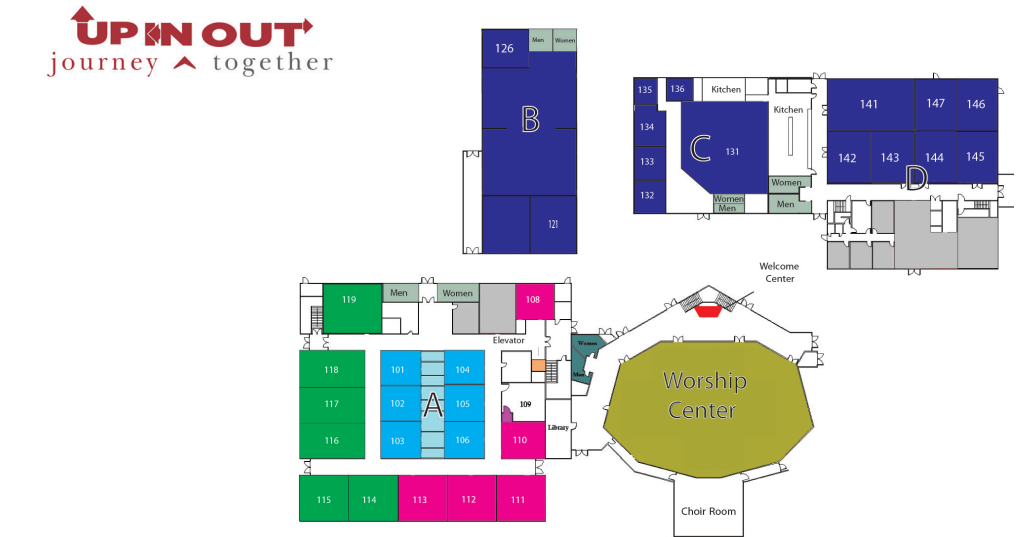

Make an effort this week, when things start to go wrong, to stop and pray, “God, I’m not sure what you are up to, but help me respond in a way that honors you.” You may just be surprised at what happens. You may see God do some exciting things in your life and in the lives of those around.

My prayer for us, is that we will all grow in our confidence of God which will allow us to live with a sense of peace. As we do, I pray that those around us will be impacted – just as we see those around Zechariah and Elizabeth impacted. Seek to live your life with purpose, not by accident.

Honored to be your pastor,

DARRELL

SERMON NOTES

The Promised King A Humbled King Luke 1:57-66

THE BIG IDEA: We, like Zechariah, must learn to submit our own desires, expectations, and beliefs to the will of God.

1. God’s movement in our lives will _____ others (vs. 57-58).

2. Not everyone will _____ (vs. 59-61).

3. Humility _____ to obedience (vs.62-64).

4. God’s movement will _____ others to take note (vs.65-66).
