THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good morning Northside family and friends! We did it! We made it through the hustle and bustle of 2021. Christmas is so full of events and things that we often forget the real meaning of Christmas. Jarred Hall, a Christian illusionist, reminded people a few weeks ago to keep Christmas in the right perspective. I shared this video on my Instagram, if you want to see it. He used a gift wrapped box that turned out to not be a box at all. Pretty clever guy.

Now comes a season that I hope we all will slow down, reflect, and think about “What now?”. What will 2022 hold? What are my goals? And most importantly - how am I going to glorify and honor God this year? John 3:30 says “He must increase, but I must decrease.” This is our focus today as we worship Christ, and as we look forward. What are our priorities? What are our non-negotiables as we move forward into this new year?

Our students have been in a series called “Be Bold!”. We have been looking at how God has called us to go from good people to bold people! That is going to be my focus this year.... That I can decrease, but also be bold as I walk through this year!

I hope as Christian’s we celebrate Christmas and Easter everyday.
