THOUGHTS ON THE JOURNEY

Good New Year’s Eve Morning, Northside family and friends! I hope that you had an awesome Christmas with your loved ones. Tomorrow starts 2024, and we all get the chance to see it together. I truly hope it is the best year yet. God is moving and working in all of our journeys, and I’m excited to see what happens this year as we journey together.

As the new year starts, let’s take time to reflect on what God has done in our lives in 2023. Maybe it was a new job, a new house, a new family member, or multiple new things. Maybe 2023 was an easy year, full of the same ole same ole. For some, it may have been a hard year. Nonetheless, 2024 is here, and we get to celebrate and challenge ourselves to live out our calling in this new year and new season.

This morning, we will be looking at Romans 12:1-2. Our focus is on what this new year holds through the lens of how we are to worship and live. Every year we make New Year’s resolutions and tend to follow them for a few weeks, but as believers we need to be reminded we are being transformed daily. C.S. Lewis said it best, “The Church exists for nothing else but to draw men into Christ, to make them little Christs. If they are not doing that, all the cathedrals, clergy, missions, sermons, even the Bible itself, are simply a waste of time. God became Man for no other purpose.” We as the church can make all the resolutions we want, but if we are not living on mission, what’s the point? We are either pointing people to God or pushing people away from God.

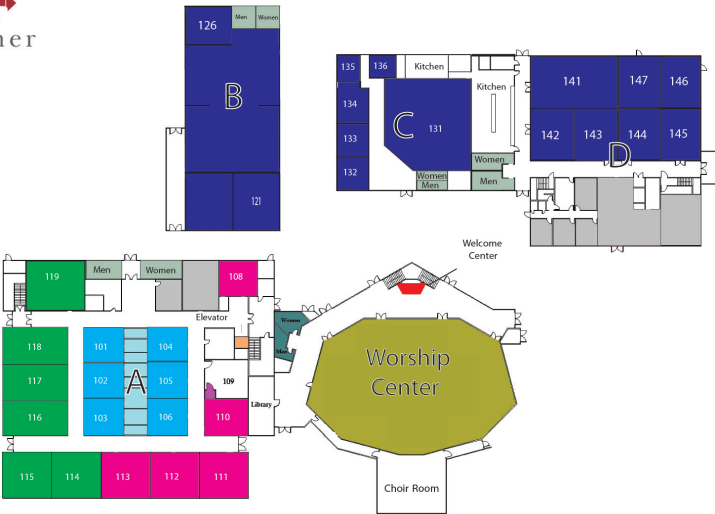

I hope that as we dive in and look at this passage, we take a moment to look within and search our hearts and ask the question as we roll into this new year: Am I the same old person I used to be, or am I being transformed into a little Christ more and more everyday?

Please continue to pray for Darrell and his family as he takes the next month to rest and seek after God’s face. Pray that he will be able to rest, sit in the presence of God, and be re-energized for the next season of ministry here at Northside. We love you all and are so privileged to serve alongside you.
