Definition of Biblical Parenting:

It is modeling the relationship that God has with His children while training your children in the instructions given in God's Word and believing in a God that showers grace on your weaknesses.

Session #1: The Model of Parenting

Principle #1:

Parenting starts with the parent modeling the way forward.

Deuteronomy 6:4-6

Joshua 24:15

¹⁵ And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the Lord, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your fathers served in the region beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwell. But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."

A photograph of a family of four sitting on a couch. A woman is on the left, holding a young child. A man is in the center, smiling. A girl is on the right, leaning back. They are all laughing and looking at each other. The image is faded to serve as a background for the text.

Parenting Truth #1:
I am my child's number one discipliner.

A family of four is shown in a candid, joyful moment. A mother and father are sitting on a couch with their two young children. They are all laughing and smiling, creating a warm and happy atmosphere. The background is slightly blurred, showing a home interior with a bookshelf.

Parenting Truth #1:
I am my child's number one discipliner.

More is caught than taught.

Parenting Truth #2:
My child will learn what love is and how to love from me.

Parenting Truth #3:

My child will see what I worship many times clearer than I see it.

Parenting Truth #4:

I can't force them to embrace the Gospel, but I can model the Gospel.

Parenting Truth #4:

I can't force them to embrace the Gospel, but I can model the Gospel.

- The Gospel shows us our brokenness.

Parenting Truth #4:

I can't force them to embrace the Gospel, but I can model the Gospel.

- The Gospel shows us our brokenness.
- The Gospel give us forgiveness.

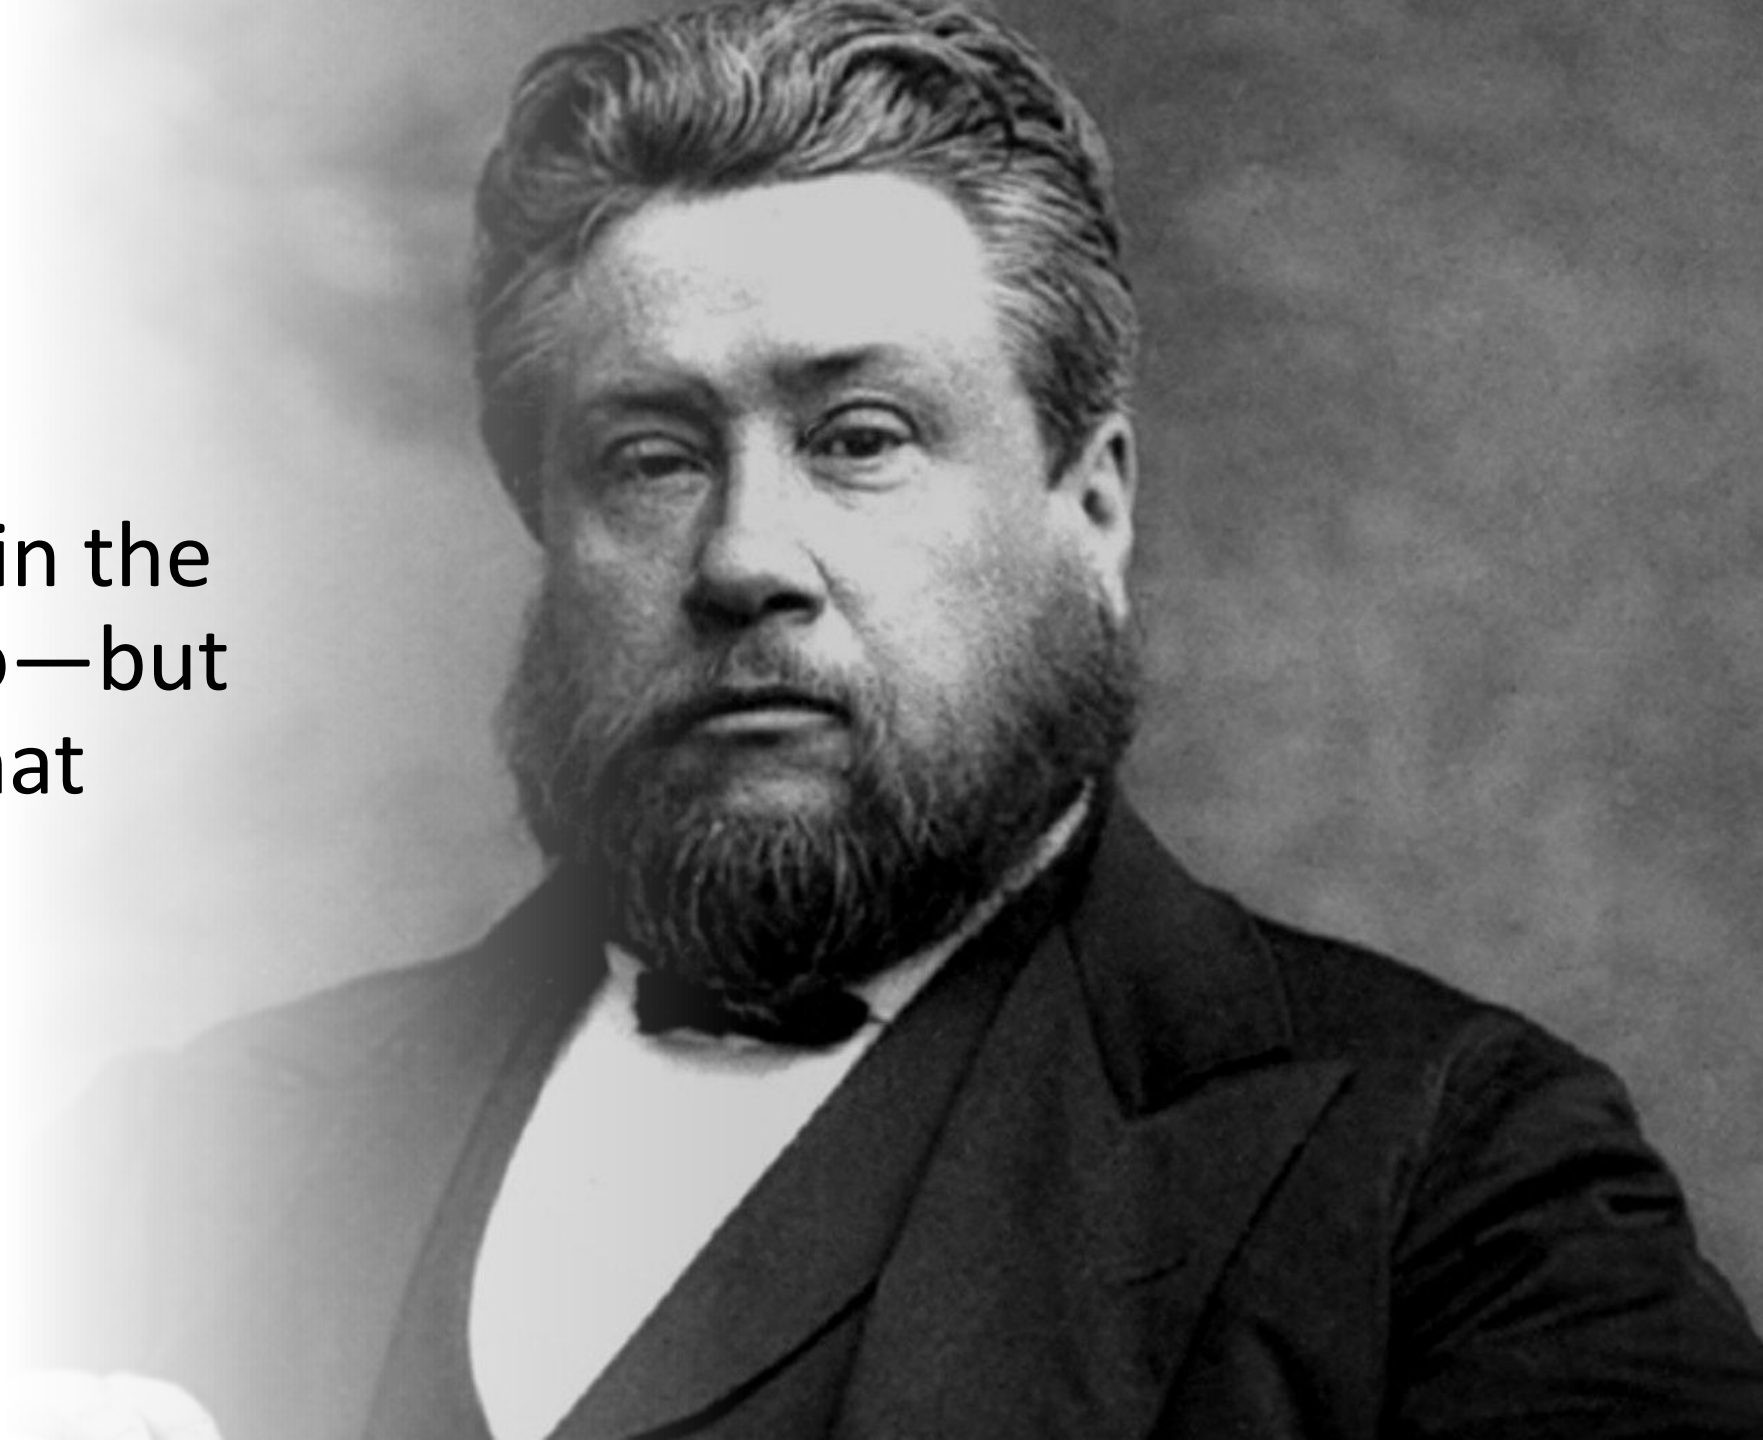

Parenting Truth #4:

I can't force them to embrace the Gospel, but I can model the Gospel.

- The Gospel shows us our brokenness.
- The Gospel give us forgiveness.
- The Gospel defines our purpose.

“Train up a child in the way he should go—but be sure you go that way yourself.”
