SUNDAY MORNING ADULT CLASSES

Witnesses to the Truth: A Study of John's Letters

September—November 2025

10:30-11:15 am

Adult Bible Class Fellowships:

We have five Adult Bible Class Fellowships for you to visit and join. Each Adult Bible Class Fellowship functions as a learning community where members study and apply scripture, welcome newcomers and guests, encourage and care for one another, and serve in Jesus' name.

We live in times of insecurity and uncertainty. It seems as though everything is changing. New social patterns are emerging that challenge traditional values. New beliefs and ideologies have infiltrated our culture, leaving many believers confused and anxious.

Against this contemporary world of uncertainty, John's letters take us to a different space marked by assurance, knowledge, confidence, and boldness. John longs to protect his "dear friends" from both error and evil. John offers no new doctrine; rather, he appeals to them to remember what they already know, have, and are. The predominant theme of these letters is Christian certainty. And that certainty is twofold. First, the gospel and the Christian faith are true. And second, Christian believers have been born of God and possess eternal life.

Today, as in the first century, Christians need the certainty John's letters offer. A fresh confidence about Christ and about eternal life, based on the foundation John gives, can again lead Christian people into a boldness that empowers their discipleship and energizes their testimony to the world!
