

"For us, Sanctity of Life Sunday can be hard as we grieve the choices that we've made, but it also can be a day—and IS a day—of huge celebration, in seeing what God has done and can do and continues to do in healing His children who He loves, wherever you're at and whatever you've done."

Calvary Bible Church Neenah recently hosted Michael and Tallulah Caulfield for its observance of Sanctity of Life Sunday in 2024. (The Caulfields were the featured speakers at Bella's 2023 banquet.) In addition to sharing their testimony during the worship service, a Q/A opportunity allowed for further interaction.

Q: What advice would you give to people who might encounter a friend or family member with an unplanned pregnancy?

—excerpt from Q/A with Tallulah Caulfield

A: First, say a quick prayer.

Life is messy, so what might work for one person might not work for another.

One of the most important things we can do as far as changing culture, in general, is to be encouraging and excited—not give them a look of horror. I think that we, especially as Christians, need to remember first and foremost that children are a blessing and a gift, no matter what. It doesn't matter how they're conceived, when they're conceived, why they're conceived.

Several prolife organizations, including Bella Medical Clinic, were represented at the event—to help people understand the needs and encourage involvement in the organizations.

Blessings for Bella families were abundant at the Christmas party sponsored by River Valley Church in Oshkosh. These smiles are a good indicator of the fun!
