STRANGELY DIM – John 13:18-38

Sunday, May 4th, 2025

1. What stands out to you the most in this passage—Judas's betrayal, Jesus' command to love, or Peter's denial? Why?
2. Why do you think the disciples didn't suspect Judas, even after Jesus said someone would betray Him?
3. What does Jesus mean by being "glorified" in verses 31-32? How is the cross a display of glory?
4. Jesus gives a "new command" to love others as He has loved us (v. 34). What makes His love different from ordinary love?
5. Think of a time when someone loved you "like Jesus." What impact did it have on you?
6. What does it practically look like to love others like Jesus in your family, church, or workplace?
7. What warnings or encouragements do you take from Peter's overconfidence and eventual denial (vv. 36-38)?
8. Are there areas where you tend to rely on your own strength rather than on Jesus? How can you shift that reliance?
9. How does this passage help you think differently about failure, forgiveness, or second chances?
10. In light of this passage, what might Jesus be asking you to confess, surrender, or change this week? How can your group support you in that?
