Worship Again
9.14.25

If you've been part of Community Church for a while, what are some of your favorite memories from the "family album" of our church? If you're newer, what drew you to this community?

What do you understand worship to be? How has your understanding of worship evolved over the years? In what ways do you worship God outside of Sunday morning services?

In 1 Corinthians 10:31 Paul wrote, "Whatever you eat or drink, do it all for the glory of God." What are some practical, everyday activities where you could better live out this principle?

Worship can be defined as "making God central in the pursuits of our heart." What are the main pursuits of your heart right now? How central is God in those pursuits?

John Piper's quote states: "God is most glorified in us, when we are most satisfied in Him." On a scale of 1-10, how satisfied are you in God right now? What tends to compete with God for your satisfaction?

What does faithfulness look like in your life today? What might you need to change to be more ready for God's plans for you?
