Is Your Daughter Ready?

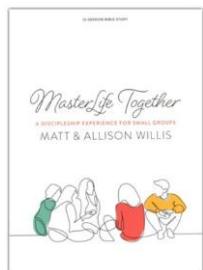

Facilitator: Stephanie Mallett

Today's girls need grace and grit. How do we raise them in light, yet prepare them for the dark?

The journey of a girl mom often presents tricky terrain. In the early years, moms focus on the good. Being kind. Noticing beauty. Having faith and hope for the future. All the while, wondering: Can we help them believe in goodness yet not be naïve? Can we prepare them to handle hard realities without letting reality harden them? Books cost $10.

MasterLife Together

Facilitator: Pastor Rob Davis / Ryan Puls

Avery Willis's MasterLife has helped thousands of Christians progress in prayer, personal purity, living in the Word, witnessing, and other key disciplines of the faith. MasterLife Together is a discipleship experience that incorporates key components from the original version but is written for a new generation of believers. Simple yet comprehensive, this resource offers five daily exercises to be done individually each week, enhanced by the authenticity and accountability of a small group. Designed to help both new Christians and experienced believers, participants will learn to follow Jesus with all that they have and all that they are. Books cost $10.

Storyteller Bible Study: John, Part 2

Facilitator: Adam Curtis

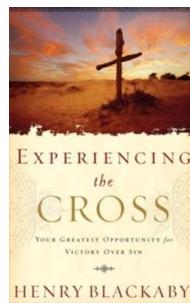

The Gospel of John is one of four books describing the life of Jesus. John's Gospel is divided into two big sections.

In the second half, Jesus turns His eyes and mission to Jerusalem, where He will suffer and die. On His way, Jesus prepares His disciples for what will take place and prepares Himself to be an atoning sacrifice for our sins.

Books cost $10.

Experiencing the Cross

Facilitator: Don Larimer

Jesus commanded us to "take up your cross and follow me." But what does it mean to "take up the cross?" Providing a fresh perspective on Jesus' sacrifice, Blackaby calls us to experience the deeper dimensions of Christ's death by radically dealing with in-and by welcoming God's presence into our lives. Books cost $10. Class for men.
