WHEN GOD MOVES

February 3rd was a special day for Louisville Bible College as our extended college family met and celebrated the great work of God in 2023 through our 75th Anniversary fundraising campaign. From a dream to raise $75,000 to reduce the college debt, to a reality of enough funds being received to eliminate the debt is truly the work of God!

Having experienced such a mighty work of God leads one to consider, what should our response be? In scripture when mighty works of God were recorded people responded in various ways. I recall singing, praise and worship, fear, humility, repentance, and other responses. Therefore, I conclude that there is more than one right way to respond when God moves.

As LBC has experienced the mighty work of God let me pass along with you some of our responses.

Praise – only God could do what was done for LBC

Worship – LBC called for a time of worship among all of her people

Continued commitment to mission – God did this so we can more effectively do our work

Pledge to faithful stewardship – LBC must go forward only following biblical practices of financial stewardship

Thanksgiving – God did this, so we thank Him for such an amazing gift, BUT He used people to provide His gift, and we thank the hundreds who gave so generously

LBC is also responding WITH AN EYE TO THE FUTURE to this mighty work of God.

Prayer – we are praying for God's leading in the ways to more effectively serve Him

Planning – a Task Force was formed to make recommendations to the Regents for strategic planning

Personnel – LBC needs help in doing her work; student recruitment, IT assistance, and office and administrative help are all being considered

Reflecting on the mighty work of God at LBC, the best news we have is a thought that the Apostle Paul shared with the Philippian church, "He who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." (Ph. 1:6b)

Yours thru Jesus,

Kerry Allan
