FROM THE

Desk of the President

Kerry Allen

“Louisville Bible College exists to educate preachers and other Christian workers for Christ’s church”

I love Louisville Bible College! I love her because of her heritage. LBC started at a time of immense tension within our brotherhood, and LBC held firm to the truth of scripture. I love her because of my personal experience. LBC’s flexibility of course schedules and low tuition made obtaining a degree possible for me. Above all though, I love LBC for what she is.

Louisville Bible College is a niche’ school.

She is mission driven

She remains a classical Bible College

She operates with very limited overhead

She is a family

Although it is hard to verbalize clearly, our niche’ is what distinguishes us from other colleges. Sometimes I can only say that you can’t describe LBC, you must experience LBC. Still, that begs the question: “What makes LBC what she is?”

The answer to that question surely must be found in the LBC motto:

For the love of Christ compels us...

(2 Cor. 5:14a NKJV)

Mottos are more than catchy phrases. A motto captures the heart of an entity. It expresses the values, purpose, and guiding principles of whom or what it describes.

For LBC our motto certainly captures our role in the kingdom. As disciples of Christ, love is our greatest commandment, and it is a distinguishing mark of our discipleship. Our motto also is a standard for us.

Christ’s love compels us.

We are not right with God, or with our fellow human, nor are we even true to ourselves if we aren’t living according to love. I would have you notice that it is not just that we are compelled by love, but we are compelled by Christ’s love.

Christ’s love is:

- * Sacrificial
- * Faithful
- * Extreme
- * Generous
- * Gracious
- * Universal
- * Forgiving
- * Timeless
- * Divine
- * Powerful

In our divided society today Christ’s love is needed more than we have ever known. If LBC is true to herself, then what we are, how we operate, and why we exist prove why LBC is so vital in the world. For this, I love Louisville Bible College!

Yours thru Jesus,

Kerry Allen

LBC Family Album: Summer 2025

Family is extremely important to God. You will notice several times throughout our Fall newsletter “family” will be highlighted. Welcome to a look inside our Family Album of Summer activities!

This summer the LBC family traveled and was engaged in numerous brotherhood events. We were pleased to be invited to participate in programs in Southeast Indiana, West Central Ohio, Southwest Ohio, and back home again in Louisville, KY. Below is a sampling of some of our family travels.

Louisville Family Day BIBLE COLLEGE August 2025

Family Day is a time for new students, alumni, staff, faculty, and their family members to meet together on campus to share in the beginning of the new school year! Good food and fun was enjoyed by all! Welcome to the LBC family!

LBC Family News

Lisa Witt (wife of Adam Witt, IT Director) has recently joined the LBC staff, filling a much needed position as Academic Records Assistant. Welcome, Lisa!

Jacob Simpson ('23) began his first full-time ministry on September 7 with the Oak Forest Christian Church in Brookville, IN

Adam Witt (LBC IT Director) also began a new ministry on September 7 with the First Christian Church in Hanover, IN.

Congratulations, Dr. Terry Peer, on completing a 10 year ministry in June with the Glen Este Church of Christ, Cincinnati, OH. Dr. Peer is the LBC Executive President.

“Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction.”

II Timothy 4:2
