

[illegible]

This sermon on Matthew 6:5–15 emphasizes that genuine Christian prayer flows from a personal relationship with God and must therefore be secret, sincere, and faith-filled. Jesus rejects both the showy prayers of hypocrites and the mechanical repetitions of the heathen, insisting instead that believers meet with God privately, without concern for impressing others, and speak to Him authentically rather than through scripted or thoughtless phrases. True prayer springs from confidence in God’s character—His omniscience, His care, and His desire to give good gifts—so Christians need not use “tricks” like excessive length or repeated formulas to get His attention. The sermon urges believers to cultivate a sacred “secret place,” repent of impersonal or rote prayer habits, remember that God is the true audience in public prayer, and relate to Him as a real Father and Friend who already knows their needs and delights to hear from them.

- Thanksgiving Tuesday Night Midweek Service – This Tuesday, November 25th we will have a service at 6:30pm in the gymnasium. Please bring a dessert to share.
- Baptist Times – The newest edition of the Baptist Times is available on the back table. The Baptist Times is full of encouraging and educational articles about ministry and the Bible. Pick it up today!

GROW

Ways to Grow:

- Cantata Christmas Program – Join us for this year’s Christmas program, “Glorious Mystery!” Our Saturday night dinner theatre for this year’s Christmas program is officially sold out. We invite you to join us for the free Sunday evening presentation on December 14th at 6:00pm during our regular service. This special night will feature the full program, followed by a time of fellowship with cookies, coffee, and hot chocolate for everyone. Bring your family, invite a friend, and come enjoy a wonderful evening as we celebrate the miracle of Christmas together.

SERVE

Ways to Serve:

- Patch Club – Patch is singing tonight in our evening service. Please have your sailor here and in uniform at 5pm in the auditorium.
- Organized Visitation – There will NOT be organized visitation this Saturday, November 29th. There are maps and tracks available, on the back table, for those that would like to still go out. If you have any questions, please see Bro. Austin Bigler.
