

ALPHA TEAM

The ALPHA Team is led by: Lisa Adams

Overview of the team

The Alpha Team is passionate about introducing people to Jesus and creating space for those who are spiritually curious to explore the deeper meaning of life. We focus on cultivating a warm, low-pressure environment where guests feel safe to ask questions, engage in open conversation, and discover faith at their own pace.

Our team serves with humility and hospitality—welcoming guests, facilitating discussion following the Alpha video talks, and covering the course in prayer. We want every potential guest to know that Alpha is a friendly, safe environment where they can explore life's big questions and encounter the Christian faith.

If you want to help the church in its mission to introduce people to Jesus, we'd love you on the team if you are:

- A born again Christian
- Relationally focused, able to build trust and nurture community
- Inclusive, valuing and respecting everyone's perspectives
- Patient in walking with people on their journey towards Jesus
- A good listener that can serve as table host
- A sensitive communicator able to guide group conversations
- Outgoing and warm, able to greet guests and lead icebreakers
- Bold and confident in inviting people to respond to the gospel
- Able to assist with practical logistics such as setup and teardown
