

Fire Marshal Team

Overview of the team

The Fire Marshal Team helps ensure a safe environment for everyone attending our Sunday meetings. Team members are trained to respond confidently in the event of an emergency and play a proactive role in maintaining safety standards throughout the building.

Time and Location

Serving takes place during Sunday meetings at King's Community Church, Hedge End.

What we're looking for:

We'd love for you to join us if you:

- Are calm and reliable: You're able to remain composed and dependable in high-pressure situations.
- Have a strong sense of responsibility: You take safety seriously and are attentive to your surroundings.
- Can follow procedures: You're able to follow clear safety protocols and assist others in doing the same.
- Are a good communicator: In the event of an emergency, you can give clear directions and help others remain calm.

Training will be provided, so no previous experience is required—just a willingness to learn and serve!

How often you'll serve:

- Our team operates on a four-week rota, and we'd love for you to serve once or twice every four weeks.
