

“WAY TO GO!”

by Pastor Ted Laesch

“Way to go!” is one of those phrases that we all need to hear from time to time. It has many different versions like: “Atta boy!” or “Thank you!” or “You did great!” No matter how we say it, the words mean so much.

The Bible is filled with examples of encouragement. Acts 4 tells us about a man named Joseph, but the apostles nicknamed him “Barnabas” which means “Son of Encouragement.” What a blessing Barnabas was to the church! Through his encouragement, the apostle Paul was first accepted by the church in Jerusalem (Acts 9:27).

One little known Bible character that received a “Way to go!” was Philemon. Paul said this to him: “Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.” (Philemon 7)

Considering the importance of encouragement, I’d like to share a word of appreciation with you, the members of the Chapel of the Cross family. I’d like to thank you for your continued generous and sacrificial giving -- showing your love for the Lord and His church. Over and over again, when there’s a need, the Chapel family chips in, and the Lord provides.

The most recent example of that is the retirement of Chapel’s debt. What a wonderful accomplishment! On March 30 we were blessed to witness the burning of the mortgage. Praise God from whom all blessings flow! We praise Him for the faithful and generous gifts of many over the years to make it possible that we are today, for the first time in 60 years, debt-free. And we can now dedicate those funds, once used to pay the mortgage, to other important areas of mission and ministry. Way to go, Chapel of the Cross!

But debt-retirement is just one example out of many! It’s a joy to see so many serving the Lord by serving others in love, whether that be through Friend of Moms, helping with Helping Hands Food Pantry, serving as an usher, acolyte, reader, Altar Guild assistant, and in many, many other ways. Way to go, Chapel of the Cross!

And soon, through our collaboration with Bethlehem Lutheran Church, we will see many little ones at our campus, being cared for and hearing about Jesus in the Day Care Center opening this spring. You continue to show that there’s a “big picture” to the ministry of the Church -- and there’s important ministry to be done in St. Louis, ministry made possible by partnering with other brothers and sisters in Christ. Way to go, Chapel of the Cross!

I could go on (and on and on!), but instead, let me just say again: Way to go, people of Chapel of the Cross! And know that “Your love has given me [and many others] great joy and encouragement.” ✠✠✠

What a joy it is to see how God is working through the Chapel of the Cross family to share His love with one another and with our community!

Chapel of the Cross will host an Easter Egg Hunt for children of the congregation and the community on Saturday, April 19. Children and their families are invited to come for crafts and games from 10:30–11:00 a.m. The Egg Hunt will begin at 11:00 a.m.

We are asking for donations of small, wrapped candy (no nuts please), stickers, or other small toys to put in the eggs. We also need youth and adult helpers for the day of the hunt! Look for more information in the Commons area.

We will fill eggs with candy on Sunday, April 13 after the 11:00 a.m. service. Please come and help if you can—many hands make light (and quick) work! Contact Mary Laesch.

Get ready for an Outback adventure at Vacation Bible School this summer! The theme for this year's VBS is Epic Australian Adventure: An Unforgettable Journey with Jesus. TRIVIA NIGHT

by Bill Rusnak

Our annual trivia night on March 8 was a huge success! 104 players from 7 different churches joined our 2.5 hour event! Three short table games were added this year; Scavenger Hunt, Chronology, and a table version of Family Feud. The 8 categories of 10 questions each yielded several high scores and the winning table, with 63 correct answers, earned the grand prize of cash and new Thrivent T-shirts.

The money we raised from this event will help enable students and chaperones to attend the National Youth Gathering this summer in New Orleans, Louisiana. Trivia raised $3,018 and the silent auction raised $915.

We thank the dedicated 14 youth and 16 adult volunteers who helped to make the event a great success by setting up the gym, working the concession window, securing 49 auction donations, serving as judges, cashiers, registration, and cleaning everything when it was over around 9:00 pm. Our MC, Jerry Bowen, kept things rolling smoothly.

Church social events are so valuable and fun. Thanks to everyone who worked, played, laughed and ate! 🙌🙌🙌

TRIVIA Night

MARY-MARTHA GUILD

Chapel members and guests are always welcome and invited to attend our meetings.

On Saturday and Sunday, April 12 and 13, the Mary-Martha Guild will hold its annual Spring Bake Sale. A recipient will be announced in the Chapel Weekly.

We will hold our regular meeting on Monday, April 14. This month we will be hosting a baby shower for the benefit of Friends of Moms.

Chapel member Jayme Zivirgzdins will be our guest speaker at the May meeting on Monday, May 12. She will talk about her business, The Earth Sprout.

On Monday, June 9, we will have our Installation Dinner here at church. It will be catered by Catering to You. 🙌🙌🙌

THE ULTIMATE REVELATION

by Craig Schlichtmann

When watching a mystery show on TV or in the theater, the climactic moment occurs when all the characters are finally assembled at the end. The detective holds everyone's attention as he lays out, point by point, how the events took place. All the minute details individuals couldn't recognize in the moment, the sly gumshoe uncovered behind the scenes. The suspense builds as the facts are revealed, until the detective ultimately pulls off a mask while everyone present gasps: Old Man Johnson?!

Directly after the chaotic events of the Holy Week, Luke records similar events experienced by two disciples returning home from the Jerusalem Passover celebration. The story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus is one of my favorites in the Bible. Every time I hear it, I imagine myself travelling with Cleopas and his partner, whose name is unrevealed, experiencing what they did that night. They were discussing the events of the weekend when a mysterious man, the very subject of their story, joined them. Upon hearing the distress and confusion expressed by His disciples, Jesus, the Good Teacher, directed their attention toward Scripture, as He constantly does, to reintroduce them to the true Savior they were promised, rather than the creation of expectations of their own minds.

Did He begin His revelation in Scripture with the verse He used to begin His ministry? "The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor" (Isaiah 61:1–2). The Messiah is anointed of the Holy Spirit, yet also the Son of God and King of all: "I will proclaim the Lord's decree: He said to me, 'You are my son; today I have become your father. Ask me, and I will make the nations your inheritance, the ends of the earth your possession'" (Psalm 2:7–8). He is the Son of Man who will rule the nations (Daniel 7:13–14). He came to earth to establish God's new covenant with us, that we may know Him and His commandments and He will forgive our sins (Jeremiah 31:31–34).

From the very beginning of the story of salvation, Jesus He has been a part of it. He is the instrument through which God promised Abraham: "I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you" (Genesis 12:3). He is the star coming out of Jacob (Numbers 24:17), the scepter which will not depart from Judah (Genesis 49:10), and the greater offspring of David who will establish His kingdom forever (2 Samuel 7:12–16).

Perhaps Jesus directed them toward the Old Testament stories foretelling His life. God's provision of a sacrificial ram in place of Abraham's beloved son Isaac on Mt Moriah. Jesus as the embodiment of Jacob's ladder, on which we are now allowed to ascend. Jesus, the Passover lamb, sacrificed to save His people. He is the manna, the living bread. He is the rock in the desert, struck to bring forth living water. Ultimately, He was raised up like the bronze snake to heal His people.

He is Immanuel, born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14) in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2). He was subject of a plot to murder Him (Jeremiah 31:15) but was protected and later called out of Egypt (Hosea 11:1). He healed during His ministry (Isaiah 35:1–6). He was praised by the masses on Palm Sunday (Psalm 118:25–29) while entering the city humbly riding on a donkey (Zechariah 9:9).

Then, in the final act, Jesus was rejected by the Jewish leaders, and despised. He took on all the sins of humanity (Isaiah 53). He experienced scorn and disgrace (Psalm 69:19–21) while being mocked and forsaken (Psalm 22) and He died. But one additional prophesy is revealed: "I keep my eyes always on the Lord. With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken. Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices; my body also will rest secure, because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead, nor will you let your faithful one see decay (Psalm 16:8–11).

In my mind I see, with every revelation from Scripture, the disciples experiencing more and more awe at the intricate plan of salvation that was laid out in front of them. Their uncertainty regarding Jesus' station as the Messiah melts away in the face of the ancient Spirit-inspired writings and His true mission becomes clear to them. After they stop for the night and Jesus blesses their dinner, the veil is fully removed, and the elation of the disciples is unbridled. "Were not our hearts burning within us while He talked with us on the road and opened the Scriptures to us?" (Luke 24:32)

As we traverse the season of Lent into Holy Week and Easter and beyond, we acknowledge Jesus' selfless sacrifice and extraordinary love, but also the plan of salvation that God devised. He refused to lose us because of our sins and was willing to pay the highest price to redeem us. May your Lent and Holy Week be especially meaningful this year, and save an extra Alleluia for the Easter season!

God's blessings to you, in the worship we offer to God and in the life we lead to His glory. †††

LAMP MINISTRY UPDATE

by Mike and Ellen Kehe

News and notes from LAMP Ministry....File this under "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" AND "Be Careful What You Pray For." Our Chapel of the Cross LAMP teams currently have 21 people interested in serving this summer! Since last summer, God has been at work laying the groundwork for us to extend our mission in Brochet and Lynn Lake, Manitoba to also include the growing community of the Marcel Colomb Reserve, which is about 45 minutes from Lynn Lake. Being able to lead Bible School in three different communities requires additional people to serve. We trusted that if God wants this to happen, those additional people would rise up. Here they are! Praise God! The plan for this summer is to serve those three communities in the same week, the first week in August. In addition, the LAMP office reached out to us about doing a Bible School week in Churchill, Manitoba. They haven't had anyone serve there since before Covid. It is a smaller community, so the plan right now is that Ellen and Mike Kehe will be traveling to Churchill the second week of August while the rest of the group heads home. Thank you for your continued prayers and support for all the LAMP teams in their plans and preparations for this upcoming summer.

FOUR SITES!

LAMP at the National LCMS Youth Gathering: Ellen and Mike, along with Team members Bethany Kehe and Hannah Wroblewski, will be representing LAMP at a booth at the Gathering this summer. Our goal is to increase the visibility of LAMP among LCMS teens and adults, answer questions, and encourage people to participate in a Short Term Mission Trip.

Well done, good and faithful Servant. Les Stalke who had the vision that became the LAMP Ministry over 50 years ago, entered into glory with our Lord March 22. Rev. Stahlke served as a parish pastor in Alberta for six years before founding and serving as CEO of LAMP for 25 years. He saw LAMP grow to become an international organization with two boards, and expanded to serve people scattered over more than one million square miles of northern Canada and Alaska. "The entire LAMP family is mourning the loss of our founder," shared LAMP's Executive Director, Rev. Dr. Steven Schave. "But we grieve with hope in Christ our Savior." †††

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD SHOEBOX MINISTRY UPDATE

I read a recent post about someone wondering how Operation Christmas Child decides who gets to receive a shoebox, and whether there is an income bracket criteria. In response to that, let me share my experience of receiving a shoebox as a child in the Philippines.

I was 6 years old when I received my shoebox. Our group of kids were not poor; we were middle class in the city. Our families had secure jobs, paid thousands for private school education, and vacationed to different countries abroad. However, we were poor in the gospel. The shoebox gifts were used as tools for us to get to feel God's great love. We were taught about how Jesus died on the cross to save us from our sins.

OCC may primarily send boxes to poor communities (and that is a wonderful thing), but we must remember that these shoeboxes are not aid. These are gifts of gospel opportunities. Every person, regardless of background, deserves to hear the gospel.

If anyone is curious of what I received in my box, I remember getting a stuffed bear, jump rope, koosh ball, colorful erasers, toothbrush, and some playing cards (pictured here). I still enjoy these playing cards even now that I'm an adult. God bless you all!

- Mela

Operation Christmas Child Shoebox Ministry at Chapel of the Cross thanks the Helping Hands Food Pantry for a recent "treasure trove" of items donated to the food pantry that were then shared with the Shoebox Ministry! Squishmallows, which are considered a "Wow Item" when packing a shoebox, were among this trove, and will now be a part of our packing party in November! Thank you, Helping Hands Food Pantry for your partnership in the Gospel!

As always, thank you to everyone in the congregation who continue to "fill the box" with assorted items that will then be packed in shoeboxes in November! 🙏🙏🙏

IT'S THE REAL THING

by Gary Timm

Seems like these days we are being constantly barraged with news and advertisements touting Artificial Intelligence, or AI. AI isn't a new concept. It was discussed in some of my Computer Science classes back in the late 1970s. In fact, the term "Artificial Intelligence" can be traced back to 1956, the year I was born.

The concept of AI has always been met with at least a bit of skepticism. I recall comments being made like "I'll take human intelligence over artificial intelligence any day." Some of you may recall when in 1988 an AI powered computer first beat a human grandmaster in a game of chess. That was a big deal. Today we have AI controlling actual vehicles. Sometimes they behave nicely and sometimes they run through red lights and crash into things. But what else can you expect considering AI is based on human intelligence which is flawed by sin.

Similarly, there is Godly wisdom and human (artificial) wisdom. Just as AI is subject to our human flaws, human wisdom is corrupted by sinful motives and ideas. While there is much pressure to live our lives based on human wisdom, we must be very careful in its application; for human wisdom values self, possessions, pride, self-reliance and status, but Godly wisdom turns all that around.

"But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere." James 3:17

"For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength." 1 Corinthians 1:25

In His Sermon on the Mount Jesus taught...

"Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock." Matthew 7:24

The next time you are tempted by human ("artificial") wisdom, consider these words from King Solomon who was truly gifted with Godly wisdom.

"Blessed are those who find wisdom, those who gain understanding, for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold. She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her." Proverbs 3: 13-18.

And how do we find this wisdom?

"The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow His precepts have good understanding." Psalms 111:10

"If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you." James 1:5

Don't be led astray by human wisdom which can lead you where you don't want to go. Rather, seek God's wisdom as revealed by the Holy Spirit through Word and sacrament and prayer. Just like Coca'Cola, Godly wisdom is the real thing. †††

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.
