theCHURCH OF ARIZONA
Real Life. Real People. Real Jesus

Leaders and Coaches,

In case you missed the announcement email on January 15th, please read below.

As I approach my 3 years on staff at theCHURCH as the Groups Director I am humbled as I think of each and every one of you. The way I have been welcomed into your homes, into your lives and the lives of your group members has been beautiful. I am so extremely grateful that I have been able to serve each of you and His church during this time. It is with humility, joy and a little sadness that I must step into what the Lord has planned for me next. I am answering the call to focus on my primary ministry, my family, and to accept a different pace for my life so that I can focus on my health and being the best version of myself for those that love and depend on me. The Lord has new work for me to do.

I have formally submitted my resignation as the Groups Director and will continue to be on staff in my current capacity for several more months as we seek to find and train my replacement. The position will be opened and we will begin accepting applications within the week. If you are interested in the position or have a potential candidate in mind, please reach out to myself or Pastor Justin.

I love each and every one of you. It has been a pleasure and a privilege to serve as the Groups Director. My family and I will continue to lead and serve alongside you in theCHURCH as it is our home and you are our family.

Need to chat? Have a question? Let's grab some coffee and catch up. With Love - Cassie
