Pic top Left: 2023 has come to an end and we've seen tremendous blessings with souls saved, men and women being baptized and church growth. We've also been blessed with these young men who are enrolled in our Bible Institute. We have two other men who were not there when this picture was taken. Two in this group were born in Hainan, but all the others are from mainland China, which broadens our outreach of the Gospel to other places in China.

Simon (back row far left) is one of our pastors and teachers in the institute. The man directly in front of me with the 'peace sign' was recently saved and just devouring the Bible and is one of our most active Christians in Haikou. His family is 'ok' with him being a Christian since they realize it has corrected many of what they call 'social problems': drinking, lazy, fighting, wasteful spending, no direction in his life, etc. Pray for these men as they learn the Bible and witness to the lost in Red China.

Pic top right: We often enjoy a team meal together with those who are deeply involved in our ministry. These are some key church leaders (Chinese) and PCC teachers who make things happen in China. To my right: Simon and Brian (Chinese Pastors), Jim Palmer (my assistant), Joe (preacher) and his wife Bonnie. To my left: Pastor Peter with his wife in front of him. Next to Peter is John and Sarah Sinskie and their three children in the front. Directly in front of me is Teacher Chen who works with the ladies of our nine different churches. Carrie, in the yellow dress, is Brian's wife. Cathy (Blue Dress) works in my office, but her family will not allow her to come to church. Crystal is a PCC graduate who has worked with us for the last six years. All of these are a great help with our ministry and provide me with special counsel to navigate the complexities of China.

Our nine churches are growing, the Bible Institute is bearing fruit, and our Bible translation has finished several books of the New Testament. Your prayers, and support has given us the opportunity to MINISTER in Communist China.
