AN ADVENTURE IN LONDON

Somedays, you can only get one thing done, and that became no more clear to us than when we took the kids to get their passports renewed in London. Our day started grey and early at 4.30 AM getting the kids up and strapped in the car. We then drove an hour to a tube station on the outskirts of London. Things were running smoothly until our train stopped in Stratford. First, there was a few minutes delay. Then, a few more. Finally, the driver told us that if we could find an alternate route we should.

We packed up the kids and ran 15 minutes through town to the other tube station (on a different tube line). After rushing through the London underground, we finally made it to the US Embassy and made the shortest trip to America we've ever taken.

Thankfully, everything went smoothly at the embassy and two weeks later we got the kids passports back and renewed for another 5 years. Thank you all for praying for us, not just for ministry things but the everyday life events as well. We know it's the Lord's blessings that make even crazy trips to London go well!

WHO AM I?

My senior year in high school I was asked to write a paper simply entitled "Who Am I?" I took the approach that a man is what he does. So, I wrote a paper with that premise and failed the assignment. In the 20 years since, I have learned my misunderstanding between action and identity. For instance, I am a husband, not just a pickle jar opener. I am a father, not just the guy that plays with my kids. I am a child of God, not just my ministry as a missionary. Actions are all well and good but if we don't know who we are, we'll miss the most important part.

Because I've realized how essential this is, I'm preaching a sermon series on our identity in Christ, the Church, and the World. It's been amazing to see how salvation changes our state in so many ways. Please pray as I'm preaching these truths at Downham Baptist Church!

Thank you,
Sam, Beth, Ruby, and William Quinn
