November 2025

Dear Pastor, Church, and Friends,

We greet you with the greeting of Scripture this month as we all celebrate Thanksgiving. Psalms 100:2,4 tell us "Come into his presence with singing... be thankful unto him." There is much for which to be thankful. For the months of September to October there were 108 saved and 7 baptized in the ministry. God has allowed us to be on the field for 31 years, and many wonderful things have happened. Some of them took a long time to grow, blossom and bloom.

In October, a young lady who was born and reared in our church got married to a wonderful young man. She waited a long time for the right one. In God's timing, He allowed her to meet His choice for her in a Bible college outside of Guyana. This young man himself was from a different country, all the way on the opposite side of the world. It was one of the most beautiful weddings we have ever had. The choice to stay right and pure all the way to the marriage altar was a powerful testimony to all who witnessed the wedding.

Here is another story for which we give thanks. Recently, a young couple has been coming to our church. She received Christ and got baptized, but he was resistant. Just a few weeks ago, he got saved, baptized, and is coming to church with his wife and child. This may seem like a small thing to some, but for us, it is huge.

Again, another couple who recently got saved and baptized are wanting to enroll in the discipleship program we have called "Foundations of My Faith." They are not married. Pray that they will come, hear, learn and grow.

A young man who is originally from India has just finished the first level of the discipleship program.

A lady from Cuba recently got saved. She is excited and wants to learn more, though she speaks limited English. Pray for someone who is bilingual who can help us start a Spanish work.

We just finished our annual missions conference. Dr. Greg Ogle and his wife, Robin, were our guests for the conference. He is the director for Teaching All Nations Bible Institute. The Ogle's are wonderful, heart-warming servants of God. It looks like our mission's commitments have increased because of the conference. We are grateful to the Lord for this. We will be looking to support others in the cause of reaching lost souls for Christ.

All these are blessings, and we give thanks to God for them. Thank you for the part you have played and continue to play in partnering with us in this great work.

A Yuletide blessing for you and yours on Christmas Day and a Happy New Year to all.
