

SEPTEMBER 2025

Church Planting Missionaries

DEAR PRAYING FRIENDS,

Our baby was finally born! Her name is Emmalyn Mae Taylor. It is such a joy to have another little newborn. God has blessed us abundantly! She was born on September 5th, just one day after Callen's birthday. Hallie is recovering well. The baby is very healthy and sleeping well. We are slowly getting back to normal around here, and Callen loves his little sister!

Following the birth, we could see God's hand of grace and protection in so many areas. The prayers we have said for our baby girl have thus far been answered, including my prayer that she would look just like her mommy. God has done a wonderful thing. And now Hallie and I want more than ever to reflect His love to our children. We need His grace. Would you pray for us to raise our children to love God?

I have been discipling a young man, Ignacio, in our church for the past six months, and we finished our last official lesson the week before Emmalyn was born. After several weeks of not meeting together, he is still demonstrating evidence of spiritual growth. He has had very good questions each time we talk, and it is apparent that he desires to live for God and serve Him! There are multiple areas of his life that he has adjusted according to what the Bible teaches. He has shown a desire to tell his friends and family about Christ as well. It is so encouraging to see his fresh desire to honor God. However, concerning his family, they are not saved. They are allowing him to attend church and meet up with me, but they do not understand their need for a Savior. They have always been very kind to me, despite their current rejection of Christ. Ignacio has talked to me about ways that he can be salt and light to his family. Would you pray for him as he endeavors to lead them to the Savior?

IN CHRIST,

JOE & HALLIE TAYLOR - MATTHEW 22:37
