

"Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." - James 1:27

For 57 years I have carried the Gospel to the nations, bringing relief and hope to children, widows, and the needy. My late wife, Jackie, and I founded the Jackie Mize International Children's Foundation (JMICE), and now with Renée I continue this vision to care for orphans, widows and bring aid in disasters.

Through JMICE, a 501(c)(3) humanitarian aid NGO, we provide immediate relief when crisis strikes, while also opening long-term doors of compassion into nations missionaries often cannot reach.

Our work began with the Orphan Christmas Program, ensuring forgotten children were remembered at Christmas. What started small has grown into a global outreach touching thousands of lives each year.

Today, JMICE serves children and families across many nations, extending both the Word and compassion of Christ. Our ongoing goal for the last two years is to expand care to 7,000 children every month. While we have not yet reached this number, we are steadily moving forward – and for the last three years we also expanded efforts to rescue and care for victims of human trafficking.

The world grows darker and time grows shorter, yet our resolve has only deepened. Will you join us as we continue to shine His light, rescue the vulnerable, and bring hope where it is most needed?
