

FAFC Questions

1. What area did you most relate to in the message?
2. Nehemiah was called by God to a big task. He was part of the Jewish exile led to rebuild the Jerusalem wall. While he was called to something big, God will use us too. Do you believe that God has something important for you? What dreams do He still have for you?
3. God worked through the heart of the king, people who would join him, and through His own help. Why do we sometimes think that the problem we face is all about our ability to face it? What role does God play?
4. Building is often a metaphor of something God wants to build in us or through our lives. He wants to build something by using us. What dream do you believe God has for you? What work does God want to fulfill that He has started? What steps should we take when God speaks?
5. God promises that He will bring victory in life no matter what we face. What does that mean when you struggle? How can we best turn to God for help?
