

FAFC Questions

1. Can you give a one sentence overview of what the message is about today?
2. John writes again of the importance of not only loving truth, but living in truth. Why is truth important to know and follow? Do you believe the world has a different view of truth? What does the world think about truth as opposed to what Christianity says about truth?
3. There are three characters mentioned in the short book of 3 John. Their names were Gaius, Diotrephes, and Demetrius. Which one(s) had a good reputation? Which one(s) had a bad reputation? Name something that John points out that we should follow as believers? Name something that we should avoid?
4. John the Apostle was being greatly disrespected by Diotrephes. This was a sign of pride. What should be our approach in our relationship with Christ and a teachable spirit in all areas of life? Have you ever struggled with this?
5. John in 3 John 11 writes, “Dear friend, do not imitate what is evil but what is good.” Did you have a person you imitated when you were young or someone now you want to be like? How are we doing as we imitate a Christian we admire? What do you admire about them?
