

FAFC Questions

1. Jude was written as a warning against falling away from Christ or rejecting Him. Do you believe this is a problem in our culture? What are some reasons people turn their back on Christ?
2. In the book of Jude, we are called to “contend for our faith.” What does this mean to you? Too often we can blend into our culture rather than stand out. What are ways that we can better contend through words and actions?
3. There are many references to the Old Testament in Jude. Some of these include Israel’s rejection of God, Sodom and Gomorrah and even angels that have fallen. Can you choose one of these and share how they demonstrate a rebellion against God?
4. Jude reminds us to “persevere” in our faith. What are a few ways given to be prepared to live out our faith strongly? What helps you stay strong?
5. Many times we are told to “hold on to the end.” We are given the help of the Holy Spirit not only to survive but to thrive. What does it mean to you that you are not alone?
