

FAFC Questions

1. What most stood out in the message?
2. Joy and happiness are compared to one another but are unique in that joy is something God gives that can be lasting while happiness is based on happenstance. Have you found that to be true? When are you the happiest? Do you believe God can give joy?
3. We live in a world where people struggle to find joy. Many times, they are searching for it in a person, possession or pursuit. Why do you believe these things cannot provide ultimate joy? Have you found yourself looking for fulfillment in them?
4. In the Christmas story, joy was springing up in the lives of those who had a God encounter. Talk about one of the people in the Bible who found God's strength. How have you found God's revealing joy in these ways with others?
5. Joy can come through not only doing things but dropping off things in our lives. Is there something in your life that God is wanting to removing or cleanse? He will lighten our load through His Spirit help in us. Ask Him for His joy.
