Proverbs 24:10-12

¹⁰If you faint in the day of adversity, your strength is small. ¹¹Rescue those who are being taken away to death; hold back those who are stumbling to the slaughter. ¹²If you say, "Behold, we did not know this," does not he who weighs the heart perceive it? Does not he who keeps watch over your soul know it, and will he not repay man according to his work?

LEADER: He has shown you what is good; and what does the LORD require of you?

PEOPLE: To do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

The musical score is written for a single voice and piano accompaniment. It features a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, while the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, half notes, and full notes, as well as rests and dynamic markings. The lyrics are written below the vocal line, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Arr by Paul Langford
Sanctuary Choir

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy, like the wideness of the sea; there’s a kindness in His justice, which is more than liberty. There is welcome for the sinner, and more graces for the good; there is mercy with the Savior; there is healing in His blood.

But we make His love so narrow by false limits of our own; and we magnify His strictness with a zeal He will not own. For the love of God is broader than the measure of one’s mind; and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind.

Was there ever, kinder shepherd have so gentle half so sweet, as the savior who would have us come and gather at His feet? If our love were but more simple, we would take Him at His word, and our lives would be more loving in the likeness of our Lord.
