Library News (NEW)

Rummage Sale

As you go through your closets and shelves for items to donate to the February 14th Rummage Sale, books, puzzles, and audio items (CDs, DVDs, cassettes) should be dropped off at the library Sundays, Wednesday mornings, or in the crate outside the door. We will go through the donations to see if any should be retained in the library or sorted for the sale.

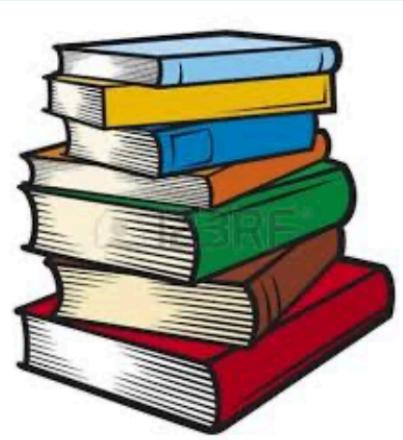

New Arrivals

The Library Committee processed a number of donated books for you to borrow. Look for them in the New Arrivals section of the library or on the rolling cart. Thank you to our many donors who keep our shelves current. Here are a few of the titles:

Presumption of Guilt by Archer Mayor -- NYTBS
Hour of the Witch by Chris Bohjalian -- NYTBS
The Book of Longings by Sue Monk Kidd -- NYTBS
The Black Wolf by Louise Penny -- NYTBS
Granite Harbor by Peter Nichols
Alex Cross Must Die by James Patterson -- NYTBS
NYTBS – New York Times Bestseller

The Library is open Wednesday mornings and Sundays before and after church. See Barb in the office for access at other times.

Book Discussion

Imagine, one day, opening your door and finding a small wooden box that will tell you the exact number of years you have left to live. Imagine, everyone in the world receives a box for them as well on that very same day. Where did these come from? Would you open the box? What are the implications to not only you, but to society as a whole?

This is the theme of the book The Measure, written by Nikki Erlick. It is a book listed in this year's Reading for Renewal selection.

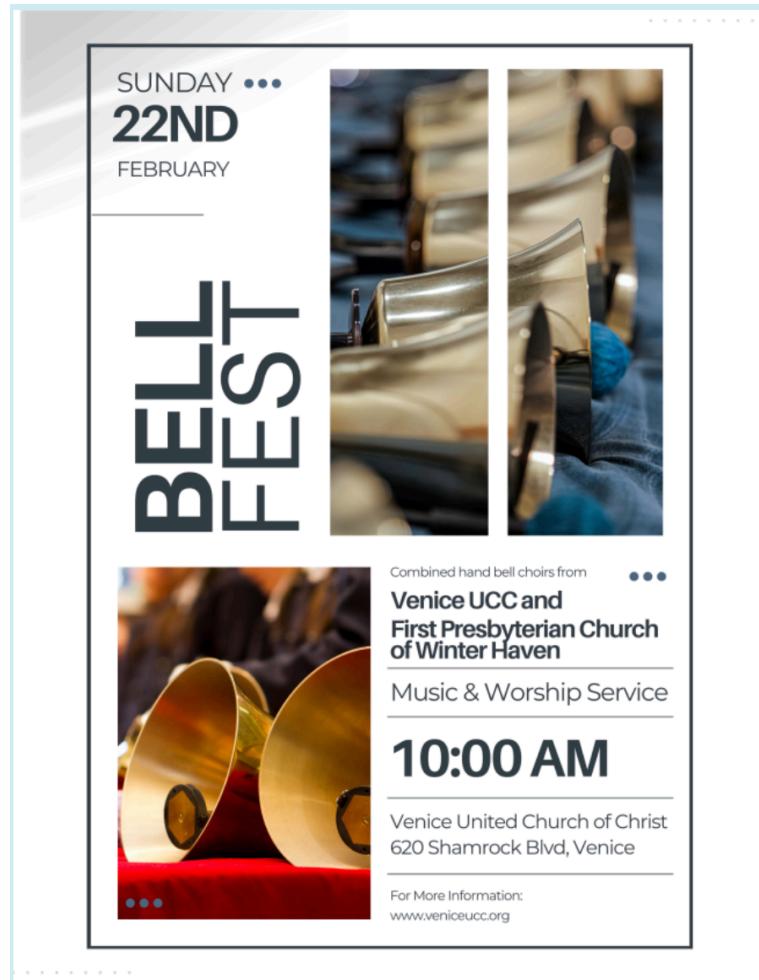

After reading it, I wanted to discuss it with others. Please join me on Friday, March 20, 2026, at 1:00 PM in the Parlor at VUCC. The church library has a copy of the book, and it is in some of the Sarasota County library branches.

Also, if you found another book on the Reading for Renewal list that you found to be outstanding and one that could lead to a good discussion, bring it along and share it with us.

A Bell Fest Is Coming!

On Sunday, February 22nd, the Handbell Choir from First Presbyterian Church of Winter Haven will join our Bella Handbell choir for the morning worship service. The two choirs, when combined, represent 20 ringers. The groups will join together for two pieces, United, composed by Jason Krug and conducted by Jeremy Rath, Director of Music of Winter Haven, and Fanfare and Aria, composed by R. Hobby and conducted by Dr. Lynda Weston, Director of the Venice UCC handbell choir and joined by Jeremy Rath on the organ. Each bell choir will also share an individual piece. The joint choirs, with organ, will accompany the Doxology.

The Winter Haven group will come to Venice the Saturday before and rehearse in the Sanctuary with lunch and dinner provided by the church. Members of the congregation will house the Winter Haven ringers for the night. Our UCC congregation is invited to warmly greet our guest musicians during the social hour following the service in Naar Hall. Please circle this special event on your calendar, look for sign-ups for ways you can individually help, and invite your friends!
