“Jesus, We Claim Thee for Our Own”

Charles Wesley

Partaker of my flesh below,
To thee, O Jesus, I apply;
Thou wilt thy poor relations know,
Thou never canst thyself deny,
Exclude me from thy guardian care,
Or slight a sinful beggar's prayer.

Thee, Savior, at my greatest need,
I trust my faithful friend to prove:
Now o'er thy meanest servants spread
The skirt of thy redeeming love;
Under the wings of mercy take,
And save me for thy merit's sake.

The background features a soft, stylized landscape with rolling hills in shades of light beige and pale blue. In the foreground, several golden-brown wheat stalks are scattered across the bottom. On the right side, a portion of a stylized bird, possibly a sparrow, is visible, rendered in dark brown and teal colors.
