How Firm a Foundation - #243 TPH, vs. 1,2, 6

Text: John Rippon's Selection of Hymns, 1787; alt

Tune: FOUNDATION – Traditional American melody

How firm a foundation, you saints of the Lord, is laid for your faith in his excellent Word! What more can he say than to you he has said, to you who for refuge to Jesus have fled?

“Fear not, I am with you, O be not dismayed; for I am your God, and will still give you aid; I'll strengthen you, help you, and cause to stand, upheld my righteous, omnipotent hand.”

“The soul that on Jesus has leaned for repose, I will not, I will not desert to his foes; that soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake, I'll never, no never, no never forsake.”

† Call to Worship

Psalm 68:19-20, 34-35

Leader: Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears us up; God is our salvation.
Our God is a God of salvation, and to God, the Lord, belong deliverances from death.

All: Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel, and whose power is in the skies. Awesome is God from his sanctuary; the God of Israel - he is the one who gives power and strength to his people. Blessed be God!

† Hymn of Adoration

Come, Thou Almighty King

#212

† Invocation and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

† Confession of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell*; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

this refers to the realm of the dead, not the place of punishment.*

"catholic" means "universal" church, the true church in all times and places.*

† Gloria Patri

#572

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end.
Amen, amen.

Silent Confession of Personal Sins

Corporate Confession of Sin

Dear divine lawgiver, we take shame to ourselves for open violations of your law. We confess our secret faults, our omissions of duty, our unprofitable attendance upon the means of grace. Our iniquities have increased over our heads. We confess and lament our deficiencies and backslidings. We grieve over our numberless failures, our hardness of heart, our lack of profit from your mercy, and our neglect of opportunities for usefulness. Our trespasses are known in the heavens, but we are thankful that Christ has gone into the heavens as our Advocate with the Father, and as the propitiation for our sins. Please recall us to yourself, and enable us to feel our first love again, for Jesus' sake. Amen. (Adapted from The Valley of Vision)

Book Table: The Student and Children's Ministry team selects new books every month for parents, students, and all those interested in learning. The book theme for September is New Releases/Favorites. This table is in the narthex near the nursery area. Donations are appreciated for any books selected.

A Note About Children In Worship: As our church continues to grow, we will have an increasing number of infants and toddlers in our worship services. Since we are a covenantal church, we greatly value our covenant children and unapologetically seek to assimilate them into corporate worship from the earliest ages. Watching God grow his church through the birth of covenant children is one of our greatest joys as a church! At the same time, an abundance of children does create some challenges for corporate worship. For a congregation like ours, which deeply values the ministry of the Word, it can be challenging for some members to concentrate and receive the Word if children are making excessive noise in the service. Conversely, it can be challenging for parents of young children to receive the ministry of the Word if they constantly have to step out of the service to quiet their children. Rather than allowing these challenges to breed frustration in the body of Christ, the Session warmly recommends that we view these challenges as an opportunity to express mutual love for one another.

For the members who would prefer the service to be silent as an aid to concentrated worship, we encourage you to express love to families with young children by bearing with some noise from our covenant children. For the members whose children are especially vocal, we encourage you to express love to other members by temporarily removing your child from the service, taking advantage of the narthex or nursery as needed. In both instances, we have an opportunity to heed the command of the Apostle Paul: “walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace” (Eph. 4:2–3).

New Fall Sunday School Classes

WPC's Age and Stage Adult Discipleship Classes are designed to provide opportunities for prayer, fellowship, and teaching. Classes are organized in age groupings with the goal of encouraging relational connections among people who are experiencing similar life circumstances. There is a host and teacher for each class to help facilitate growing together in Christian community. The following classes begin on September 7:

- College Age: Respectable Sins. Have we become so focused on "major" sins that we've grown apathetic about our subtle sins? This class, based on Jerry Bridges' book, guides us into a deep look at the corrosive patterns of behavior that we often accept as normal. We will address specific "acceptable" sins we tend to tolerate in ourselves, such as, jealousy, anger, judgmentalism, selfishness, and pride. Pastor Roberts will be the main teacher in WCA Room 110.
- 20s and 30s: As for Me and My House: Biblical Foundations for Parenting. This class explores what the Bible teaches about family, parenting, and raising the next generation in the Lord. Each session will focus on a specific topic—from discipline and discipleship to media, chores, and parenting through special challenges—grounded in Scripture and full of real-life application. While we may not all parent the same way, we'll seek unity around God's truth and grace for one another. Our aim is not perfection, but faithful, thoughtful parenting shaped by God's Word. Pastor St. John will be the main teacher in WCA Room 104.
- 40s and 50s: Being God's Steward: Rethinking Money, Possessions & Eternity. We live in a material world where money and possessions are part of everyday life. We make money, spend it, and need it to provide for ourselves and our families. Is money bad? We can feel enslaved to it – is there freedom? How about debt, savings, giving, investing, or retirement and how do these relate to eternity? God's Word contains more verses addressing money and possessions than faith and prayer. Let's study what God says and see that stewardship is about a lot more than just giving to the church. Stacy Murphree will be the main teacher in the WPC Library.
- 60 and up: Respectable Sins. Have we become so focused on "major" sins that we've grown apathetic about our subtle sins? This class, based on Jerry Bridges' book, guides us into a deep look at the corrosive patterns of behavior that we often accept as normal. We will address specific "acceptable" sins we tend to tolerate in ourselves, such as, jealousy, anger, judgmentalism, selfishness, and pride. Eric Fulcher will be the main teacher in WPC Classroom 1.

Other WPC Adult Discipleship Classes include a cross generational class that blends people from all stages of life and our own "seminary lite" BASIC Institute Class.

- Cross Generational: Bible Study. "All Scripture is God-breathed and useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness." Join our cross generational class for an in depth study of a selected book of the Bible. The particular book is still to be determined, but the class will be designed to increase your knowledge of the Bible, grow your faith in Christ, and equip you to serve the Lord. Robert Benton will be the main teacher in WPC Classroom 2.
- The Basic Institute: Systematic Theology 102. This class is a seminary-lite class that focuses on three doctrines: Doctrine of God, Doctrine of Man, and Doctrine of Christ. The Doctrine of God will include the knowability of God, the proper names of God, the glory of God, his incommutable and commutable attributes, the Trinity, and the works of God (creation and providence). The Doctrine of Man will encompass man created in God's image, the nature of man, sin, the covenant of works (pre-fall) and the Adamic covenant of grace (post-fall). The Doctrine of Christ will consist of the person of Christ (names and two natures), the states of Christ (humiliation and exaltation), and the offices of Christ (prophet, priest and king). The teacher will be Cliff Smith, and powerpoint presentations will be utilized that include short videos of leading reformed theologians such as R.C. Sproul, John Piper, James White, and others. This class meets in the WPC Commons.
