CALL TO WORSHIP

God invites us to worship Him.

Listen as the pastor calls us to worship the LORD together and then join in singing songs of praise to Him!

Isaiah 25:1; Psalm 139:14

Leader: The Lord is your God; exalt him; praise his name, for he has done wonderful things.

All: I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.

PRAYER

The Invocation and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Gloria Patri

#572

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

The Corporate Confession of Sin

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, maker of all things and judge of all men: We acknowledge with grief our many sins and our wickedness. We have sinned by thought, word, and deed. We have done so against your divine majesty, justly provoking your anger and indignation against us. We earnestly repent as we heartily grieve our many sins. Have mercy upon us most merciful Father, for the sake of your dear Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Forgive us all that is past, and grant that we may hereafter serve and please you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

I will praise the Lord as long as I live.

— Psalm 146:1-2

WHAT WE’LL Learn

As we begin our third month in our series of worship lessons we focus this month on praise. We can, I think, all agree that the vast expanse of creation screams of the reality of a Creator. No “boom” could have generated a more precise and involved set of creatures to roam this earth. And when faced with that reality we are forced to give praise out of sheer awe to our great God.

We have a sun to provide us heat, a moon to cause the seas to flow in and out, and stars to show us where to go. We have cattle to provide food, dogs to keep us company, and birds to bring the first real notes of music to our ears. This world would be terribly boring and quite unlivable without those things.

Who are we to hinder, limit, nay prohibit the praise of this Creator? Jesus said in Luke 19:40, responding to the Pharisees’ questioning the disciples’ praise, “If they keep silent, the rocks will burst into cheers!” The created is wrought with angst if its Creator is not praised!

As we look to praise, the natural tendency is to observe what the recipient has done to deserve said praise. And our God has done quite a lot: created the universe, calculated the movement of the moon and sun, and engineered how the earth must move on its axis. That’s quite a resumé to deserve praise!

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea; Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty! God in three persons, blessed Trinity.
