Merry Christmas

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! This will be the last newsletter of the year; we will start youth group up on January 7th with a youth praise and worship then on January 14 we will begin new classes for the spring semester. We are meeting tonight for Christmas caroling. I have several guest speakers lined up for the high school class beginning in January. Presently I have Tristan Franzoy (leadership) and Joel Newton (the reliability of the bible). I will be moving over to teach the middle school class since Dom and Kaydin are unavailable. I believe it will be a great semester. We will have a parent teen meeting on January 11 after both 2nd and 3rd services in the youth wing. We will also have all the sign-up sheets for volunteers posted and linked in a text message to everyone. Our main goal will be to get parents to sign up for food throughout the spring semester. Looking forward to 2026!

Christmas Caroling

We are caroling Christmas tonight, Wednesday, December 17th from 6-8 p.m. Please be at the building BEFORE 6 p.m. we are leaving right at 6 p.m. to go caroling. Please wear a Christmas hat or a Christmas sweater or both so that we will look very festive. I will have extra hats for those that forget to bring one. We have a tight schedule to keep in order to finish by 8 p.m. If you show up late, please have your ride take you to Casa Del Sol Nursing home 2905 Missouri. We will be there till about 6:20 p.m. Maps will be available posted on the front door. You can also give me a call. We will have a meal at the Johnson's home at 5411 Four Winds Place. We should arrive there around 7 p.m. and leave at 7:50 p.m. to return to the church. This is our last youth event of the year.

It was so much fun to watch the children's program last Sunday night followed by the light show.
