THE MINOR PROPHETS

6-Day Devotional

Day 1: Wrestling with God

Passage: Habakkuk 1:1–4

Reflection: Habakkuk opens with raw honesty. He looks at the violence and injustice around him and cries out, “How long, Lord?” His prayer gives us permission to bring our questions and frustrations to God. Faith doesn’t mean ignoring hard realities. It means bringing them to the One who sees all.

Prayer: Lord, thank You that I can come to You with my questions. Help me trust that You hear me, even when I don’t understand what You’re doing.

Action Step: Write down one situation that feels unfair or overwhelming. Pray honestly about it, just as Habakkuk did.

Day 2: God’s Unexpected Answer

Passage: Habakkuk 1:5–11

Reflection: God’s response shocks Habakkuk. He is raising up Babylon, a nation even more ruthless, to bring judgment. God’s ways are not our ways. Sometimes His answers don’t make sense to us, but they always serve His greater plan. Trusting Him means believing He is still just and good, even when His methods surprise us.

Prayer: Father, when Your ways don’t make sense, remind me that You are wiser than I am. Teach me to trust Your bigger plan.

Action Step: Think of a time when God’s answer wasn’t what you expected. How did He use it for good? Share that story with someone today.

Day 3: Waiting in Faith

Passage: Habakkuk 2:1–4

Reflection: Habakkuk decides to stand and wait for God’s answer. The Lord tells him the vision will come at the right time. “The righteous will live by faith” becomes the heartbeat of this book. Waiting is hard, but faith anchors us when the outcome isn’t immediate.

Prayer: Lord, strengthen my faith as I wait. Help me to live each day trusting in You, not in what I can see.

Action Step: Take 10 minutes today to be still in silence before God. Practice waiting in His presence without distraction.

Day 4: God's Certain Justice

Passage: Habakkuk 2:6–20

Reflection: God declares “woes” against Babylon for their greed, violence, and idolatry. Though evil seems to thrive, God promises it won’t last. His justice may be delayed, but it is sure. Our confidence is not in human powers, but in the God who will one day set everything right.

Prayer: Righteous Judge, remind me that You see every injustice and will deal with it perfectly. Give me peace in Your timing.

Action Step: Read a news story about injustice today. Instead of despairing, pray for God’s justice and mercy to break through in that situation.

Day 5: God's Glory Will Fill the Earth

Passage: Habakkuk 2:14

Reflection: In the middle of warnings, God gives a breathtaking promise: “The earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.” No matter how dark the present looks, God’s ultimate plan is unstoppable. His glory will cover the earth completely.

Prayer: Lord, lift my eyes from the brokenness around me to the hope of Your glory. Help me live with eternal perspective.

Action Step: Write Habakkuk 2:14 on a card or your phone background this week as a daily reminder of God’s ultimate promise.

Day 6: From Fear to Faith

Passage: Habakkuk 3:16–19

Reflection: Habakkuk ends his book not with all the answers, but with trust. Even if crops fail and the land is bare, he chooses joy in God. True faith isn’t based on circumstances, but on God’s unchanging character. When everything shakes, He remains our strength.

Prayer: Sovereign Lord, help me rejoice in You no matter what. Be my strength when life feels empty or uncertain.

Action Step: Identify one area where you’ve been basing your joy on circumstances. Surrender it to God and declare your joy in Him today.
