The Song you are about to hear has recently been composed. And the purpose of this song, is that it will help the Listener better understand what far too many of us have experienced or are still going through in our journey through life.

Our World is incredibly complex, which only adds to the confusion for many people as they search for something that will make them happy.

With help from those who care, we know the Glorious Gifts from God are the Key to finding Peace and Happiness.

What is Missing?

Every day goes by yet so unnoticed.

Every day I feel so all alone.

I am adrift, afloat and going nowhere.

It is like, I feel that I have lost my home.

I know I'm loved and those who love me, want me.

Why then this feeling do I have inside?

It makes no sense because I know they love me.

Oh, What is Missing as I try to hide?

Could this be God who's knocking on my heart?

Could this be God who's searching for my soul?

He sent His Son, who sacrificed on Calvary.

All I need do, confess my sins, come home.

Our world's confused and does not know what's missing.

We search for things to gratify ourselves.

Yet, all along God's planned for us salvation.

All we need do, except it, for ourselves.

Oh, Lord my God, I marvel your forgiveness.

For what I've done, I should be sent to hell.

Amazing Grace is hard for me to comprehend.

My task is now, "go tell His story well."

My task is now, "Go share Your Story well!"
