Who was Jesus? As Christians, we believe He was fully human and fully God, alive today, and leading us in His work of Kingdom building. But what about His time on earth? In the Apostles Creed it speaks of Jesus, but speaks only of His birth, death and beyond, neglecting close to ALL of His time on earth. Even the four canonical gospels neglect to speak of most of Jesus' life on earth. In this winter teaching series at Mosaic, we will explore the life of Jesus before His earthly ministry, and examine what we know of His boyhood, adolescence, the speculations about His early adulthood, and the events before He began His earthly ministry. Does this portion of Jesus' life matter? If so, how does it inform how we understand Him and how He relates to us today?
