STONE MOUNTAIN, GEORGIA

PASTOR DAVE HENRY

PLATFORM POLICY

The people who minister on our platform and in leadership or public roles are the most visible representatives of our Church and should mirror the spirit and standards we teach.

Ministry is not the performance of an hour; it is the example of a godly lifestyle. Our character and devotion to God must be the foundation of what we project publicly.

Should you choose not to meet these minimum requirements, integrity, and ethics would require that you not participate in public ministry.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. All participants must have experienced the new birth according to Acts 2:38 and must be endeavoring to live a holy life.
2. All participants must be in compliance with the provisions of the Platform Policy.
3. Any guest may be used with the approval of the Pastor.

DRESS CODE FOR MEN

1. Sleeve length should be modest.
2. Pants/trousers should be loose-fitting, not exposing the legs.
3. Necklines should be modest.
4. Hair length should be modest.
5. Wedding rings and watches are the only forms of jewelry permitted on the platform.

DRESS CODE FOR LADIES

1. Sleeves lengths should be modest and unrevealing when raising the hands.
2. Necklines should be modest in the front and back.
3. Hem length should be below the knees while standing and sitting.
4. Open splits in skirts should end below the knee; pleated splits when open should not expose the legs above the knee. Wrap-around skirts should follow this same principle.
5. Slacks, pants, gauchos, culottes, leggings, or any other garment that divides the legs may not be worn as an outer garment.
6. All attire should be modest and not tight fitting exposing the body.
7. Wedding rings and watches are the only forms of jewelry permitted on the platform.
8. Makeup with color should not be worn on the platform.

Modest apparel draws attention to the countenance. Let your countenance testify to the joy of the Lord in your heart!
