Where Are You?

1. Where do I feel most disappointed, and what does that reveal about what I wanted most?
2. Am I still open to being changed, or have I quietly decided I am finished growing?
3. How willing am I to let others see my weakness, not just my strengths?
4. Where is Christ gently inviting me to trust Him more than I currently do?
5. When someone offers feedback, do I become curious or defensive?

6. Do I see myself primarily as a recipient or a participant in Christ's body?

7. Are there ways the church could better equip you to follow Christ, what would that look like?

8. When I imagine the "ideal" church, what am I hoping it gives me?

9. And how does that hope compare with Christ's desire to form His life in me?
