Church Metrics: The Seven Churches of Revelation

How is the life of a church measured?

When the Lord sizes up a church, what metrics does he use? What are the qualities of a healthy church, and what can it look like when those qualities are lacking? We find the answers to these questions in Jesus' letters to the Seven Churches of Revelation. This winter, we will study these seven churches with one question at the forefront: how does C&T measure up?

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

JANUARY FOCUS

This month, our collection focus is on winter clothes like warm hats, gloves/mittens, scarves, and socks, as well as washcloths and stuffies (8 inches or less). A list of monthly items is available at the OCC table. Items must be able to fit inside a shoebox (11.5 x 6") and can be dropped off in the bin in the church Concourse. If you don't shop much, consider leaving money in the OCC Lockbox, or write a check to C&T and designate OCC in the memo section. All monies collected will be used in our shoebox ministry.

LOTTIE MOON CHRISTMAS OFFERING

Over 100 years ago, a single missionary named Lottie Moon, while serving in China, began writing letters challenging the American church to send and support more workers to go to Asia. After her death in the field, her challenge was heeded in the formalization of an offering in her name.

The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering is a annual offering collected by Southern Baptists to support international missions. 100% of your gifts go directly to our missionaries. The C&T goal is $10,000 and will be collected through February.
