

NEW TO GC?

Stop by the Connection Desk today after our worship assembly. We'd love to meet you!

WELCOME!

"Now, brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born."

(1 Corinthians 15:1-8 NIV)

First importance. Those are the apostle Paul's words to a first century church in a city called Corinth. They would be his words to us as well. What matters most when we think about the good news, that is the gospel? It is that Jesus gave his life for us. It is that he was buried, as any who died would have been, in a tomb. But it is also, just as He promised, that He was raised from the dead on the third day. This is why we celebrate Easter. And this is what matters most.

Blessings,
Paul

PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

"Praise be to the LORD my Rock, who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle. He is my loving God and my fortress, my stronghold and deliverer, my shield in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me. O LORD, what is man that you care for him, the son of man that you think of him? Man is like a breath; his days are like a fleeting shadow." (Psalm 144:1-4)

Dear God, when life becomes a battlefield, you are there to uphold those who truly truth your strengths rather than their own. Your word is "the sword of the Spirit" able to overcome adversity and adversaries. You alone give victory, and only you can sustain the battered lives of the faithful throughout all the regions of the world. We thank you, dear God, for delivering us from the evils and temptations of darkness; keep us from falling, we pray, until that Day. This we pray in Jesus holy name. Amen
