

NEW TO GC?

Stop by the Guest Connection Desk today after our worship assembly. We'd love to meet you!

WELCOME!

Last week, as we began a new and different kind of series, I shared a verse, which I believe that all who make disciples who make disciples, hold dear. The words of this verse express a faith, not in the power of our words as we seek to help lead others to faith in God, but faith in the word of God—the words of the Bible as inspired by the Holy Spirit.

As you seek to make disciples, I want to challenge you to take a step back and ask yourself what you believe about the word of God (yes, Jesus is also the word of God, but I'm talking specifically about the Bible here). Over the last few years, I've met more Christians who still want to be followers of Jesus, but they aren't convinced the Bible is really God's word. This presents all sorts of problems, but that's not the focus of this short challenge. For the moment, I don't want to worry about what they believe. I want to ask you what you believe. Here's what I hold to be true, taken directly from Hebrews 4:12 (NIV):

"For the word of God is alive and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart."

Blessings,
Paul

PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from the words of my groaning? O my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer, by night, and am not silent. Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One; you are the praise of Israel." (Psalm 22:1-3)

Father, in our desperate moments—sometimes days—we call on you and wait. Please come to us in our time of need. But, Holy Father, we have not earned the right to demand anything of you, for you alone are worthy of the gifts of praise and worship. Our gratitude is for the blessing of life, freedom, and the adoption into your family that waits in hope. In Christ's name, amen.

circumstances. Like these people we read about in the Old Testament, God may ask us to take a risk or do something we might not feel prepared to do. But God will also give us the courage we need to face that challenge.

REMEMBER THIS: "Be strong and brave. Do not be afraid. Do not lose hope. I am the Lord your God. I will be with you everywhere you go." (Joshua 1:9b NIV)

DONUT TIME: Sometimes we get so excited about the gift that we forget to remember the giver. So, this month we will take some time to look around at the wonderful gifts God has given us and teach our

STAND: As we continue our journey through God's Big Story, we take a closer look at the lives of Joshua and Caleb, David, Daniel, and Esther. Each of them trusted God and found courage to face difficult
