

NEW TO GC?

Stop by the Guest Connection Desk today after our worship assembly. We'd love to meet you!

WELCOME!

Happy Father's Day!

This week, I'd like to give you just a snippet of an article you can retrieve on Renew.org titled, 6 Fathers in the Bible & the Advice They'd Give Today, written by my friend Daniel McCoy. I encourage you to read the rest of it online.

Blessings,
Paul

If the fathers in the early pages of the Bible could give modern fathers advice, what would they say? Based on their stories in the biblical books of Genesis and Job, here are some messages we can glean.

Adam

(See Genesis 3-4)

My advice is to step up and do what's right when you most feel like being passive. I passively watched as the serpent lied to my wife, I passively followed her lead into sin, and then when God confronted me, I passively shifted the blame to her. My firstborn Cain learned passivity from me. He didn't take the initiative to offer the sacrifice God asked for, and when it became clear that his brother Abel had taken the proper initiative, Cain got jealous and murdered him. When God confronted Cain, he was evasive ("Am I my brother's keeper?"). And when God rebuked him with a comparatively light punishment, he made God appear like the bad guy ("My punishment is more than I can bear").

PRAYER SPOTLIGHT

"You rescue the poor from those too strong for them, the poor and needy from those who rob them. Ruthless witnesses come forward; They question me on things I know nothing about. They repay me evil for good and leave my soul forlorn. Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth and humbled myself with fasting. When my prayers returned to me unanswered, I went about mourning as though for my friend or brother. I bowed my head in grief as though weeping for my mother. But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee; attackers gathered against me when I was unaware. They slandered me without ceasing. Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked; they gnashed their teeth at me. O LORD, how long will you look on? Rescue my life from their ravages, my precious life from these lions. I will give you thanks in the great assembly; among throngs of people I will praise you." (Psalm 35:10b-18)

Dear Father who knows best, who knows all that is going on, and who knows how to fix things. To you we give praise unashamedly. Amen.

HOW CAN WE PRAY FOR YOU?

READY, SET, MOVE! This summer, we're talking about the best friend ever with our preschoolers. We want every preschooler to know that not only is Jesus the best friend ever, but Jesus wants to be THEIR friend...

forever! And not only does Jesus want to be their friend, but Jesus is a friend worth following. That way, when the time comes, our preschoolers will be ready to follow Jesus here, there, and everywhere!

REMEMBER THIS: "Jesus said, 'Come follow me.'" (Matthew 4:19, NCV)

READY, SET, MOVE! Since the beginning, God has always been deeply involved in the world. We see God's handiwork in creation, and we see His love through Jesus, who came to rescue us. We respond to God in faith, believing in what we can't see because of what we can see. When we focus on what we know to be true about God and the world God created, we can have faith in what we can't see or fully understand. We put that faith into action as we follow Jesus and show His love to the world.

REMEMBER THIS: "Faith is being sure of what we hope for. It is being sure of what we do not see." (Hebrews 11:1, NIV)
