

Name: Put Your Money Where Your Mission Is Pastor James Heyward

Money is not the mission; money is on the mission.

“Don’t hoard treasure down here where it gets eaten by moths and corroded by rust or - worse - stolen by burglars. Stockpile treasure in heaven, where it’s safe from moth and rust and burglars. It’s obvious, isn’t it? The place where your treasure is, is the place you will most want to be, and end up being.” Matthew 6:19-20 (MSG)

1. What does it mean to you that ‘money is on the mission’?

- When I give, I aim my heart in the direction I most want to be.

2. What direction is your giving, or lack of, aiming your heart?

- Where your money leads, your emotions will follow.
Read 2 Corinthians 9:6-8 (MSG).

3. What counsel do these verses state about giving?

- Giving reveals my current mission.

4. What do your current monetary activities say about your mission?

- Giving re-aims my heart.

5. How can your giving re-aim your heart? What direction do you want your heart aimed?

- Giving releases God's supply.

6. Share a time when your giving released God's supply.

- Money on Mission Commitment:
You choose generosity before you feel it.
 - Percentage (generosity becomes real when it becomes consistent)
 - Purpose (giving is not from something; it is to something)
 - Plan (when and how you will set it up)

7. What percentage will you start giving?

8. What will you specifically give to?

9. How and when will you set up your giving?
