FROM THE PASTOR

August signals the end of vacation season, the return to school for kids, and -- although the temperature is still in the 90s -- it's time to start ramping up our ministry plans for the fall season.

Our student and children ministries resume MidWeek activities on Wednesday, August 13 and it is an opportunity to strengthen our intergenerational ministry. Even if you do not have kids or grandkids in these ministries, we can use some spiritual aunts, uncles, and grandparents to increase the influence of our spiritual family. Please visit with Lauren Bender (student ministry) or Sandi Garrett (children ministry) to learn how you can assist.

Also, we often claim we are a "praying church," but many must be praying from home because our Wednesday prayer meeting/devotionals generally consist of five or fewer in attendance. Certainly, God hears us from any location, but there is something special about praying together in purposeful gatherings. In your private prayer times, ask the Lord to rekindle the desire to gather with brothers and sisters to intercede on behalf of others and to encourage one another.

Additionally, I am planning a mission trip to Romania in October to minister to pastors in the rural areas of the province of Transylvania. If you would like to participate by going or by giving to offset the costs for the banquet seminars, please visit with me as soon as possible. The plan is to offer two seminars in separate locations to encourage pastors. Generally, we provide a meal for the pastors and wives as we invest in their ministries.

Bro. Jerry

SENIOR ADULTS NEWS

AUGUST WOO MEETING – Our program guest for the Senior Adult Luncheon on August 11 at 11:00 a.m. will be Lacy Burson, the Tourism and Main Street Administrator for the City of Marshall. It is her responsibility to promote local tourism, support downtown business, and preserve the city's historic charm. She helps coordinate community events, manage revitalization projects, and build partnerships that strengthen Marshall's appeal to both residents and visitors. Under her leadership, the city's Main Street Program has achieved national accreditation through Main Street America and continues to grow in impact and reach. A lifelong East Texan, Lacy is originally from Elysian Fields, and is a graduate of LSU Shreveport. She is passionate about small-town life, community connection, and the role local culture plays in economic development. Outside of work, Lacy enjoys spending time with her family. She is married and the proud mom of a daughter, Hadley, who inspires her dedication to making Marshall a place future generations will be proud to call home. Our menu for the August meeting will be finger foods: sandwiches, veggie and dips, taquitos, anything you can eat without utensils (except for dessert). Sign up to attend and tell us what you are bringing to the luncheon. Bring a dollar ($1.00) and a friend.
