

Cathy grew up in Boston, MA and has been living in the Vail Valley since December, 2016. She moved here with her cat Eddie.

Cathy has had many careers that include teaching special education for 20+ years. She also worked as a newspaper reporter. Locally, Cathy has worked for Vail Resorts and is coming up on her 7th year at the Beaver Creek ticket office, where she works most weekends in the winter.

In her free time, Cathy pet sits for Huillo, Jax, Chewy, and many, many more! Although she loves her new career at ERPC, her most rewarding experience was that of mother. Her son also lives here in the Vail Valley with his long time girlfriend and their dog Jana.
