

Cathy grew up in Boston, MA and has been living in the Vail Valley since December, 2016. She moved here with her cat Eddie.

Cathy has had many careers that include teaching special education for 20+ years. She also worked as a newspaper reporter. Locally, Cathy has worked for Vail Resorts and is coming up on her 10th year at the Beaver Creek ticket office, where she works most weekends in the winter.

In her free time, Cathy swims, reads and pet sits. Although she loves her career at ERPC, her most rewarding experience was that of mother. Her son also lives here in the Vail Valley with his long time girlfriend, their new baby boy and their dog Jana.
